OUR COMPLAINT BOOK.

[Norg.—Letters intended for this column must be accompanied by the writer's full name and address to insure attention. Complainants who are unwitting to comply with this rule simply wasto time in writing.—

En RERALD. WE DO IT.

To THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—
Will you please call the attention of the Department of Public Works to a large hole in the road in front of No. 161 West Fourth street, which has been open about two years, and no effort has ever been made to fill it. It is about six feet in circumference and about two feet deep. In summer it is converted into a amail pond, covered with a green south, which exhales a most misamatic odor, and in winter it becomes the burying place of all the feliuse that are assassinated during that season by the numerous small pirates of the neighborhood. Having both seen and heard of the good work of the "Complaint Book" I have great hopes that through its influence, this cholera hole will seen be filled up. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

THE BATTERY STATS.

To the Editor of the Herald:—

The weather, as you know, on Sunday was excessively hot, and thinking that a little sojourn as the Battery might serve to alleviate the suffering from the heat, I took my two children there, but to my mortification I found all the seats in the very hostest positions and entirely unoccupied, whereas crowds of pedestrians had to seek shelter in groups under the trees (such as there are), of course, standing. But in some of the avenues good positions might be found where one sould sit down in comfort were there anything to sit on except the iron chain. Hoping this may reach the eye of the proper parties in authority in such matters, by your toserting this notice in your valuable paper you will confer a blessing on thousands of others besides TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

MORE LIGHT WANTED.

To the Editor of the Herald:

Is there so law regulating the lighting of our street lamps? Must we, when the night or evening is dark as Erebus, wait as long as on a clear, moscilight night, when these lamps are almost superfluous for all the light they give? Now, for several evenings past on the street on which I reside the lamps have not been lighted until very user half-past eight, which, I think, is loiting it go a little too lar, when all she streets in the neighborhood are lighted up from one-half to three-quarters of an hour earlier. By inscriing this in your columns you will, I am sure, confer a lavor on many residents of the street.

LAMPLIGHTER,

To the Editor of the Herald:—
Though not of a complaining turn of mind I would like, through the columns of your "Complain Book," to call attention to an inconvenience of the Brocklyn ferryboats which can be very easily remedied by the Union Ferry Company. It would be a great favor to most of the passengers if they would place curtains on the cabin windows, because on some mornings the sun abines through so dazzlingly that a person cannot read his paper without serious lajury to his eyes. I trust you will give this notice, as I know a great many suffer from the same inconvenience.

HAMILTON. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:-

I have noticed reveral complaints in your paper ! regard to the early closing of Reservoir Park. It is absurd to close the only breathing spot in the vicinity just at the hour when men and women who have worked all day might enjoy is, and I believe the working classes need the beneat of this small park quite as much as the precious bables who swarm there all day. But give us all a beneat.

R. PARK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—
Seeing a complaint in your valuable paper about the Union Ferry Company selling fourteen tickets for twenty-five cents, I add mine to the many. I have been in the habit of buying tickets, and for the last two or three times I have received only fourteen. The first time I did not count them, but the second time I did. I went back and remonstrated with the licket seller, and my answer was that I got sixteen, to move on and get out of the way. Of course I saw remonstrance was, in vain, and did so. I am not the first or second. While in a conversation with accope of young men on the ferryboat it happened one had got a pack of tickets. I saw them in his hand and asked min to count them. He did so, and to his surprise only found thirteen tickets. Now this is a monstrous fraud that ought to be stopped. Let the Union Ferry Company answer.

A BAD LOT.

NEW YORK, May 24, 1877.

New York, May 24, 1877.

To the Editor of the Herald:—

Will you please call the attention of the police, through your valuable paper, to a gang of young roughs who infest Seventy-fifth street, between First and Second avenues? They throw stones at people in the street and annoy respectable clitzens living in the neighborhood. They struck me with stones on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, hurting me severely.

SUFFERING HUMANITY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—

I wish to call the attention of the public to the practice of racing by the Staten Island boats. The Castleton and Thomas Collyer, boats of rival lines, leaving New Brighton at ten minutes past eight this morning, had a "tirial of speed," and during about ten minutes were side by side, and only about twenty feet apart. It any accident had occurred to either of them perhaps a fearful loss of life would have resulted. Can you suggest any method by which the managers of these boats can be prevented from thus trilling with the lives of their passengers? Is there any authority to compel them to stop racing?

A PASSENGER.

INSOLENT CABMEN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:—
Allow me to complain of the intolerable nulsance of hackmen who have their cabs and coupés stauding in hackmen who have their cabs and coupés standing in front of and near the Grand Union Hotel. They are in the habit of assailing ladies who pass with disrespecttul jokes, calling them by familiar names, as "Sis, do you want a cab?" "Auntie, will you have a coupé!" etc., and adding personal remarks which are an insult. Their employers would put a stop to this if they knew it; for it makes a nusance of their vehicles and determines the outraged parties never to use them. This practice has been borne too long for patience.

A GOOD WORD FOR MR. CAMPBELL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD;-While concarring in the communication of Wednesday's correspondent who communication of Wednesday's correspondent who commends the "Complaint Book" so highly as the medium of having the holes and repairs opposite his residence so specially completed. I also would like to "have honor conferred upon whom it is due," for I may add truly that opposite No. 170 and to No. 190 William street and its proxsite No. 170 and to No. 190 William street and its proximity gengs of men have been at work there for a week past making what was a villatious condition of pave-ment now appear to be a first class thoroughlare. I have very recontly observed that the repairs, which practically amount to a new pavement, are being progressed down the street some distance. While fully appreciating the niggardly amount allowed Mr. Campbell by the Board of Apportionment for conducting street repairs, I beg to all the more earnestly thank him for his promptness in responding to the complaint of the neighborhood, as well as to bear tribute to the industrious and respectable class of men I have seen industrious and respectable class of men I have seen industrious and this fact alone speaks volumes for Commissioner Campbell's department, in selecting those able and willing to work, rather than the idle vagabonds seen usually under the political administrations of predecessors of his. There must have been fifty laborers alone in this gang at work.
